BELLE

ABOUT

BELLE entered the electronic music scene in 2024 and her growth has been gratifying, but this is only the beginning of the magic she seeks to create. Her career, focusing primarily on DJ-ing, encompasses areas such as singing, songwriting and producing as well.

A versatile DJ | Artist, her main focus being progressive house, melodic techno and techno. However, by bringing signature elements in her mixing style, she does not fail to explore the nuances of electronic music, combining multiple genres in order to craft emotions and express them to her audience.

BELLE began releasing her own music in 2023. Initially, pop songs, with three singles "Done", "Love Ain't Here" and "Card Games", being very well-received by the public, with tens of thousands views and streams as well as features on iHeartRadio, USA. With the remix of her track "Done", the singles "Flying" and "Malawi", her first track signed with a label (Solidarity, Switzerland), she started making her way into the electronic music scene.
